MASTER'S IN INTERNATIONAL SECURITY

Dates: From September 2024 to September 2025

Duration: 12 months, full-time

Credits: 60 ECTS

Language: English

Applications: 1 July 2024

The Master's in International Security is a one-year, interdisciplinary programme that aims to educate future professionals in the area of security and peace studies. It provides students with a comprehensive set of analytical skills and robust training in research methods to help them understand the complex security challenges of the 21st century and the role of state and non-state actors in global and local conflict dynamics.

This advanced full-time programme, taught in English, is tailored for students considering a high-level career in government, international institutions, non-governmental organisations, and the private sector, as well as those interested in pursuing an academic career.

MASTER'S IN INTERNATIONAL SECURITY

The Master's degree is fully accredited and is jointly awarded by three renowned Barcelona universities: the Universitat Autònoma de Barcelona, the Universitat de Barcelona, and the Universitat Pompeu Fabra.

The Master's syllabus offers an innovative structure, totalling 60 ECTS credits. It combines a number of core subjects providing students with a solid background in theory and research methods and a wide range of electives reflecting the students' diverse interests. The Master's in International Security programme includes three different types of courses and a final research project:

- ▶ Core courses (22 ECTS): Theories of International Security; Issues, Actors and Policy in International Security; Research Methods in International Security; Research Seminar in International Security.
- ▶ International Security elective courses covering both traditional and non-traditional security issues: A minimum of 8 ECTS and a maximum of 28 ECTS.
- ▶ Other electives: Up to 20 ECTS in lieu of International Security elective courses.
- ▶ Final Research Project (10 ECTS).
